Valletta Accommodations

The Phoenicia Malta - Harbour View Suite

Floriana/Valletta, Malta

The Phoenicia, Malta a Campbell Gray Hotel and member of The Leading Hotels of the World offers luxury within walking distance to the city's best attractions. The hotel commands glorious views of the Grand Harbour and the city's skyline, which has seen little change since the 16th century.

Its 7.5 acres of mature gardens spread to the historic entrance of the capital, marked by ancient fortified walls. Nearby, countless other monuments reveal Malta's vibrant history and the fascinating legacy of the Knights of Saint John.

Harbour View Suites are their largest rooms from 56 sqm, including a king sized bed (most with 4 poster beds), separate bedroom and sitting area as well as walk in shower and separate bath.

These suites also have panoramic views overlooking either the Marsamxett Harbour or the Grand Harbour.

The Phoenicia Malta - Deluxe Harbour View Room

Floriana/Valletta, Malta

A Valletta icon and a fine example of the city's revered architectural traditions. The Phoenicia, Malta a Campbell Gray Hotel and member of The Leading Hotels of the World offers 5 star luxury within walking distance to the city's best attractions.

Deluxe Harbour View Room

Overlooking the Grand harbour and the 3 cities or their mature garden and Marsamxett harbour, the luxurious deluxe rooms offer magnificent views. Most of the Deluxe rooms have a private balcony.

Its 7.5 acres of mature gardens spread to the historic entrance of the capital, marked by ancient fortified walls. Nearby, countless other monuments reveal Malta’s vibrant history and the fascinating legacy of the Knights of Saint John.

Valletta Suites have magnificent views of the new entrance to Valletta, designed by Renzo Piano, and the fortification walls. As well as a separate bedroom and sitting area, the Valletta Suite has 3 private balconies.

Casa Ellul - Piano Nobile Suite 5

Casa Ellul, dates back to the Victorian era possibly constructed during the early 19th century. The style is best described as Neo-Classical with a prevailing Maltese feel. Maltese characteristics such as the exquisitely coved vestibule, the colonnaded fireplace in the sala nobile, the concertina doors and Maltese patterned tiles all add to the finery of the house.

Suite 5

The grand suite forms part of the palazzo’s “piano nobile”. This stately 39 sq.m suite enjoys a king size bed with an intricately designed wrought iron headrest behind which the original traditional fireplace lies together with a cantilevered marble wash hand basin which was designed and manufactured specifically for this suite; the shape was carved out of a large bianco carrara marble block. The shower facilities are also wisely concealed behind the glazed curved partition in a satin finish, allowing privacy but also taking advantage of the room’s natural lighting.

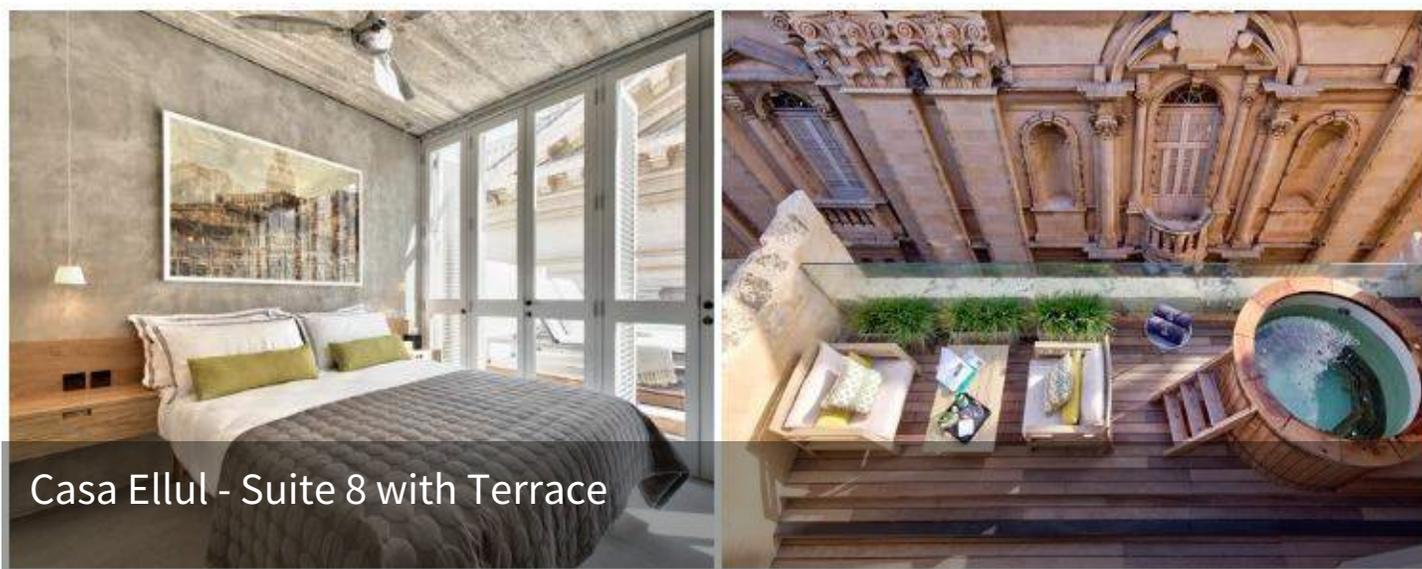

Casa Ellul - Twin Deluxe Suite 4

Casa Ellul, dates back to the Victorian era possibly constructed during the early 19th century. The style is best described as Neo-Classical with a prevailing Maltese feel. Maltese characteristics such as the exquisitely covered vestibule, the colonnaded fireplace in the sala nobile, the concertina doors and Maltese patterned tiles all add to the finery of the house.

Twin Deluxe Suite (Suite 4)

A spacious and quiet twin deluxe suite enjoying high ceilings and intricate warm coloured restored Maltese original floor tiles. An exceptional Ritty Tacsum panoramic wall paper feature drapes the walls of the shower ensuite facilities. The shower consisting of Frammenti mosaic cladding also has GESSI mixers and a TUBES towel warmer. This suite enjoys luxurious soft bed linen and has pretty courtyard views from the balconies. This room has the possibility of being interconnected to suite 5 ideal for families travelling with kids or a group of friends. A gorgeous lime green Ritchie sofa stands out and adds a classic style to the room.

Casa Ellul - Suite 8 with Terrace

Casa Ellul, dates back to the Victorian era possibly constructed during the early 19th century. The style is best described as Neo-Classical with a prevailing Maltese feel. Maltese characteristics such as the exquisitely covered vestibule, the colonnaded fireplace in the sala nobile, the concertina doors and Maltese patterned tiles all add to the finery of the house.

Suite 8

Magnificently finished executive suite featuring its own furnished private terrace with hot tub enjoying views of the Valletta cityscape and beyond.

Palazzo Consiglia - Deluxe Rooms

Palazzo Consiglia is a traditional Maltese townhouse situated at the heart of Valletta in St Ursula Street, just a few metres away from the St Rocco's church and key attractions such as the Lower Barrakka Gardens, Valletta Waterfront and Fort Saint Elmo. This flawless building portrays Malta's rich history, with a predominant Baroque design in the lower floors, and Roman and Arabic features that can be observed in the newest parts of the Palazzo.

The concept behind the name of this Palazzo is as imaginative as it is enthralling. Consiglia is the name given to an abstract woman that embodies someone that is familiar in our daily lives. As with the Palazzo, Consiglia has many facets to her character and personality, so it is fitting that these aspects are uniquely reproduced in each of the thirteen rooms in this hotel.

Guests booking deluxe rooms can choose from four diverse rooms that each have a different character. Each of these rooms has been fitted with a custom wallpaper style, upholstery and headboards. We devoted a lot of time to carefully select stunning furniture pieces that have been obtained from Italy, France, as well as from Malta. Clients can expect these rooms to be styled with complimenting pieces from a wide range of eras, including Art Nouveau, Art Deco, Classical and Baroque.

Duplex Suite

These beautifully restored suites form part of the palazzo's Piano Nobile and were originally used as reception rooms for the Moscati Parisio family for whom this wonderful Palazzo was built. Making excellent use of the high ceilings to allow for a specially designed spiral staircase to be used to create a split level suite, the bedroom space on the upper level is kept entirely separate from the very luxurious sitting room beneath effectively recreating the room's original purpose.

These suites have all been individually designed and tastefully decorated to reflect the grandeur of the Palazzo and offer our guests the comfort they expect from a luxury boutique hotel. Featuring restful and calming tonalities of green with rich jewel tones, these duplex suites have been furnished with beautiful paintings of Malta, antique furniture and are decorated with luxurious fabrics. A marble clad bathroom is situated on the upper level.

Villa Aurelia is perfectly situated only a kilometre from the beautifully sloping sandy beach at Mellieha Bay, one of Malta's most extensive sandy beaches. The villa is only a short distance away from several supermarkets, restaurants and other amenities including public transport links, banks and pharmacies.

Additional facilities include an executive chauffeur pick-up service upon arrival and departure from the villa, a sumptuous welcome food-pack including two bottles of local wine and a bottle of Moët & Chandon champagne, wireless internet, pool and garden maintenance, mid-week maid service and linen and towel change. We have made every effort to employ 'Green Friendly' technologies in the construction of Villa Aurelia including low energy lighting and a combination of solar and low energy LPG water heating systems.
